Christians of Camp Meeting

"I had never given Bible studies, and I feel that God empowered me to be strong enough to just step out in faith and to actually start giving a Bible study.

And then that Bible study turned into a larger group. And that Bible study broke off into another group.

So now we have two Bible studies going in the community. And I would have never done this if God hadn't empowered me to do it. I'm learning so much more just by giving studies than I ever dreamed I ever would."

of something for everyone, whether you're interested in chainsaws, church clerking or anything in between.

After your seminar, have a stroll through the exhibit tent. It's a few degrees warmer in there, and you're bound to find some interesting and uplifting people to talk to. Taking your time to visit on a cool day is actually the best way to enjoy what the various booths have to offer.

With all of the wonderful things to do here at camp meeting, there's always something happening that can warm your hands and your heart. Dive in and participate in all that camp meeting has to offer on these chilly days. And if you're still shivering a little, just wait a day or two and it will warm up again soon. After all, it's June in Michigan!

Keep Warm at a Cool Weather Camp Meeting

Written By: Brianna Martin

It's June in Michigan, and what does that mean? It means you never know what the weather's going to be like! This week has been a bit on the cool side for camp meeting, and combined with the rain on Sunday, lower temperatures can make for less-than-ideal conditions here when we're spending so much time outside.

A cozy campfire is a no-go here on campus, and for good reason. So, how do we make the best of the situation? I've compiled some tips for living your best camp meeting life despite the chill in the air. There's no need to miss out! Throw on your layers, pull on your rain boots and let's warm up together.

If you don't have a warm, dry place to cook or eat (I'm looking at you, tent campers!), have a backup plan for when you just need to enjoy a meal without your fingers turning blue. Purchase a meal ticket for the cafeteria (the menu is available online) or grab something at the GLAA Snack Shack and enjoy food and fellowship indoors. While you digest your treat from the Snack Shack, stick around the Books and Bites building to check out the selection of books, foods, pamphlets and other materials from 3 Angels Natural Foods and Christian Books. They have items for kids and adults— classics of Adventist literature as well as new releases on a variety of topics. Pick up Life of Christ or another board game, and you'll have something fun to do in your camper later, too!

Check the brochure and be sure to choose some seminars to attend. Seminars are indoors and there's a little bit

Secrets Unsealed

Written By: Joy Hyde

Can you keep a secret? A secret, according to Merriam-Webster, is something kept hidden or unexplained, a mystery. Are there secrets in the Bible? If there are, should we keep those secrets? Stephen Bohr doesn't think so. His ministry is called Secrets Unsealed/SUMtv. He wants everyone to know and understand the valuable mysteries in the Bible. He named his ministry, for which he is president, Secrets Unsealed, based on two texts in Scripture: Amos 3:7, which says, "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets" and Daniel 12:4, which says, "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end...." If you believe, as Pastor Bohr does, that we are in the end times, then secrets and truths of God should be unsealed. Pastor Bohr's ministry is to reveal those secrets and to prepare all those who hear for Jesus' second coming.

From his sermons presented Sabbath through Monday here at camp meeting, Pastor Bohr hopes that we, his listeners, will claim God's promises in order to be protected against Satan. He wants us to know that when we meet God's conditions, God fulfills His promises. He wants us to get excited about studying and learning from the Bible about what God has done for us through His Son, Jesus, and then exuberantly share what we've learned with everyone we meet! In Tuesday night's presentation, Pastor Bohr will provide the tools needed to become better equipped for evangelism. Then many more people will hear and learn the secrets that will lead to their redemption and salvation. It will no longer be just secrets revealed for Seventh-day Adventists, but the message will go to all the world.

Pastor Bohr shares his messages not only in English but in Spanish, as well. After Pastor Bohr leaves Michigan Camp Meeting, you will still be able to learn more from him. Many of his presentations can be seen on SUMtv.org (Secrets Unsealed Ministry TV); the satellite channels of 3ABN, 3ABN Proclaim, 3ABN Latino, and Amazing Facts TV (AFTV); the YouTube.com/secretsunsealed channel; Facebook; and all IPTV channels which include Roku, MYS-DATV, and AppleTV. Download the free SUMTV app for iPhone & Android devices. Your spiritual walk with the Lord will be strengthened and grounded in Biblical truths, and his prayer is that many souls will be in God's kingdom as a direct result of the ministry of Secrets Unsealed.

Pastor Stephen Bohr, MA, MDiv. Was born to missionary parents and has spent his life in mission service. His deep theological research is ongoing. Bohr's love for the Lord is the driving force behind
